

TALES OF CATS.

Stories That Come From the Historic Tower of London.

Two stories of the intelligence and sympathy of our feline friends were told me during one of my numerous visits to the Tower of London while I was living in England.

Southampton was a prisoner in the Tower with the Earl of Essex during Elizabeth's reign. In some strange way or by some unrecognized faculty a favorite cat of his found his abode and suddenly appeared to him, having made an entrance down the chimney. After his release by James I., Southampton had his picture painted with his faithful friend at his side. The portrait, I believe, can today be seen at Wilback abbey.

The other tale is of Sir Henry Wyatt, who was committed to the Tower during the reign of Richard III. and suffered much from want of clothing and food. He would have perished if a cat had not come down into his room and warmed him by lying on his breast and saved him from starvation by bringing him an occasional pigeon caught on the ledge. Although the keeper was under orders not to improve his food, he agreed to cook anything which Sir Henry provided, and the pigeons which the cat brought saved his life. He also had a picture painted showing the cat offering a pigeon through the bars of his cell.—Our Dumb Friends.

One of Erskine's Puns.

Lord Erskine rather prettily combined pun with compliment in an epigram he forwarded to Lady Payne in answer to her vicarious inquiries as to his health:

"I'm true I am ill, but I need not complain, for he never knew pleasure who never knew Payne."

—Boston Post.

For Economy.

The Farrier—Your horse's shoes are badly worn. He needs a new set all round. Mrs. Pennywise—Dear me! Can't you half sole them and sew up the rips?—Exchange.

Hard Questions.

Oh, tell me, does the setting sun e'er feel a sinking pain? Why is (inform a "Puzzled One") a weathercock so vain? Do stars require a gun to shoot? What makes a bucket fall? What 'tallor makes the chimney's soot? Who writes the comet's tail?

And why are dogs so lovable, how ever much they whine? Pray tell me, Mr. Editor, what makes the fir tree pine?

Why is a vessel's hind part stern? Who sings an old hen's lay? Please tell me, for I'd like to know, who wears the close of day?—London Answers.

FUNERAL

Services over Body of Mrs. J. Bert Wallace Held Sunday Evening.

The body of Mrs. J. Bert Wallace, who died at her home in the Gore apartments late Saturday afternoon after a lingering illness, was taken to Oil City, Pa., Sunday night on the 10 o'clock Pittsburg train and the burial will be from Mr. Wallace's home there Tuesday.

The deceased woman is survived by her husband, J. Bert Wallace, superintendent of the Hope Natural Gas Company, and by her mother and one sister. The mother, Mrs. Bruce, and the sister, Mrs. W. J. Horton, live at Lost Creek. The deceased woman was a devout member of the First Methodist Episcopal church and was an ardent church worker.

Funeral services over the body were held in the First Methodist Episcopal church Sunday evening at 8:30 o'clock. The Rev. G. D. Smith conducted the services.

George T. Watson, of Fairmont, was a prominent visitor here Sunday evening.

Mrs. Robert Crane, of Baltimore, who was a guest of Mrs. Percy Goff, returned home last evening.

To Our Friends and Neighbors

You know us. You know we would not—that we could not afford to go back on our word. Nor can you afford to ignore this money-back-if-not-satisfied offer on this splendid laxative.

We honestly believe we have the best bowel remedy ever made—the most pleasant-to-take, most permanently beneficial laxative for relief from the miseries and dangers arising from constipation.

We wouldn't say this if we didn't believe it to be true. We wouldn't risk our reputation by making such statements did we not feel sure you would find them true.

Our faith is built both on the knowledge of what Rexall Ordineries are made of and on observation of very many severe cases in which they have proven their merit.

Try them at Our Risk

If they do not abundantly prove their merit with you also—if you are not entirely satisfied with them, we will refund your money—and we will do so on your mere say-so. We don't ask you to risk a penny. Isn't that fair?

Just let the bowels fail in properly doing their work—just let their action be delayed and incomplete and the entire system and every other organ suffers. Wastes that should have been expelled remain to poison the system.

Headaches, biliousness, nervousness and other tormenting and serious ailments are common when the bowels tend to act daily as nature intended. All this may be avoided, if you will accept our advice.

Rexall Ordineries

taste just like candy. They are soothing and easy in action. They do not cause griping, nausea, purging or excessive looseness. They tend to tone and strengthen intestinal nerves and muscles. They promptly relieve constipation, and help to permanently overcome it.

Rexall Ordineries promote better health and better health. In all of these things they are vastly superior to old-fashioned, harsh salts and other purgatives, which are not only unpleasant to take but which usually leave the bowels in worse condition than before. We particularly recommend Rexall Ordineries for children, aged and delicate persons.

Rexall Ordineries come in vial-pocket tin boxes. 12 tablets; 10¢; 36 tablets, 25¢; 80 tablets, 50¢.

CAUTION: Please bear in mind that Rexall Ordineries are not sold by all drug stores. You can buy Rexall Ordineries only at The Rexall Stores.
